EDITORIAL

Well! Graduation is in the air. The audible gasps of relief from the Seniors can be heard everywhere. They, breathlessly await the graduation exercises, or rather, the practices that accompany graduation.

But seriously, these seniors of the class of 1964 will not be graduating, but beginning a life of adults. No longer will they be the teen-agers, who have no real responsibilities except for schoolwork and occasional jobs. They will be adults who must accept the responsibilities of earning a living, making all their own decisions, and living a good and honest life. They must really and truly graduate from childhood to adulthood.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the Class of 1964 -

In the long drama of man's life on this planet, great nations have come and have gone. Forgotten are the dynasties of the past. The splendor that was Egypt, the glory that was Greece, the grandeur that was Rome are today mainly attested by beautiful ruins.

Of the seven wonders of the world, only the pyramids of Egypt remain.

Nations of past greatness were ruled by dynasties and emperors.

A republic such as ours - a democracy by elected representatives - is an experiment so new in reality as to cause us to ponder its possibilities of permanence - its life or death.

Clearly the good sense and the high ideals of the average citizen is our hope - the lack of it is our danger.

The individual responsibility of Americans must be ever before us. If, despite our achievements, we become a rabble, swayed by slogans, and following the unthinking crowd with fads and fancies, our future is dim. But, if we as individuals think for ourselves, and concern ourselves with the problems that are important to our country, and if we use wise judgment, then our nation can be strong for centuries to come.

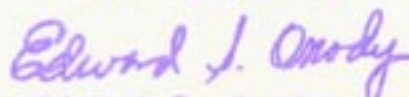

As you go forth into the world we know that you will do all within your power to uphold the high responsibility placed upon you as citizens of this nation.

We shall be proud to hear of your successes as you bring honor to our school and community.

May the future hold the best of everything for you.

With best wishes and kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Edward S. Onody
District Principal

Dear Class of 1964

Congratulations to you, the members of the Class of 1964, upon reaching this milestone in your young life--graduation from high school!

It has been a privilege to watch you grow, and I hope you continue to achieve your goal as you progress through life. Set your goal high--work hard to achieve it. You will be a better and happier person as a result.

You have not been alone in reaching this stage of your life and you should always be grateful to your parents, in particular, for all they have done for you. Remember, also, your pastor, relations, teachers, and friends who have done so much to help you. It is gratifying to know that one is never alone and will always have people like this to guide one through life.

May you continue to enjoy good health, wealth, and happiness. The very best of everything good in life to all of you!

Sincerely,

John W. Podbelski
Vice-Principal

V.I.P. PAGE

It hardly seems possible that it is commencement time again! The members of the Class of 1964 have contributed a great deal to HCS and the success of our many programs. They have given much of their time and efforts to support our activities, and we will miss seeing them in our athletic contests, musical events, club activities, classes and about the halls and walls of HCS. They have done very well and set an outstanding example for all of us. Thank you, Class of 1964, for a job well done! We will miss you.

Our musical groups and their faculty sponsors, Mr. Cariot and Mr. Pierce, are to be commended for their outstanding spring concert series presented to the public in May.

The spring sports season is certainly a busy one. Each day of the week will find our boys participating in baseball, track, and/or golf. The new ruling limiting a boy to one activity during a sports season may have affected this year's results--but HCS is still proud of its spring sports teams! Victories are in spring; trophies are nice--but active participation and giving oneself to the maximum in his chosen sport is the most important thing! Our coaches and teams are to be commended for their fine work this spring.

A most timely gift for a most timely group--the new clock outside our school building will always help us to remember the Class of 1964! This is certainly a fine improvement to our building and we are grateful to this year's graduating class for such a fine gift to the school.

Congratulations to Mrs. Elwood and Mrs. Bouchoux for the fine Book Fair held in the library. This was, indeed, well done!

A Junior's Good Bye

As the days go on and the weeks turn into time, a small child once, now finds himself grown and about to face the world in which he was born. A small child once, but now no more. In return for the passing of time the babe in arms has grown physically, mentally, spiritually and morally. The exchange for the allotted amount of time has been good, but time waits for no man.

Time waits not for you. As it saw you enter your years of training so shall it see you leave. It has, with you, passed on in age and it has seen you in your every fanciment: your loves, your hates, your successes, your failures, your blessings, your curses, your life. Life is indeed yours.

Soon you will leave high school. You will leave old friends to make new. You will hold in memory your childhood, while the future premieres to your adulthood. You will shed tears for the loss yet laugh with the gains. Life, for sure, has many compensations; and with you, the senior class of 1964, it places on display a threshold to the stars. May the brightest star shine down on you.

Yes, the future and time awaits. Awaits.....as that shining star glitters, calling you--luring you-to it. You will go. There is no escape, you will not turn back; its mystery bewitches much to much for that. You will go, and as you leave may we the class of 1965 wish you the class of 1964 a fond bon voyage. May you find your heart's desire and may you find contentment wherever life's path may lead you.
